In some quar ters it is stated that the bankers already ve promised the ne carrying out the plan, but the statement could be taken with some reservation. In the meantime the general situation continues to improve. In Liverpool Friday there were 5,800 bales of American cotton called by spinners, the largest since July. The spot situation is gradeally firming up, yesterday's report show-ing advances of one-fourth cent. The "buy a bale" movement is gaining head-wa, throughout the South and while no war wireless telegraphy, its nossibilities and importance, have occupied a prominent place in consideration of the various factors involved in maintaining absolute neutrality of the United States. in this country was perhaps most signally indicated by the installation and successful operation of wireless for train dispatching by the Lackawanna, whose service was maintained with signal regularity, while other roads were crippled because of a heavy storm which reduced overhead wire communication to a hopeless tangle.
